"momentitos peruanos"

"To the attentive eye, each moment of the year has its own beauty, and in the same field, it beholds, every hour a picture which was never seen before, and which shall never be seen again." - Emerson

A native of Carbondale, IL, award-winning photographer Sarah Paz Hyde's artistic journeys have taken her across the globe to capture people, place, and cultures. Her photos from the Philippines have been shown in galleries throughout the midwest and her work published in several notable publications. She recently spent several months in Peru as a set photographer and assistant art director for the independent film company, Lofu Productions, which produced the exhibition being displayed at Tribeca. Hyde is a Filipino-American free-thinker, a fan of philosophy and an avid reader which gives her a complex multi-cultural lens through which she views the world.
